

Resurrection Choir - impromptu choir that sings for funerals, usually aiding the congregation in singing the hymns selected by the family of the deceased. Notification is sent out to members by e-mail when the funeral arrangements are known. The group usually rehearses right before the funeral. See the Music Director for details.